Paul Bentley, Director Workforce and Communications

Paul is accountable for the development of the Trust's service strategy, organisational development, workforce strategy and human resource management.

In addition to his role on the Board, Paul attends a number of Board sub-committees. Paul joined the Trust in February 2011. Since 1998 he has held Board positions with other NHS organisations, as Director of Workforce, Director of Strategy and as a long term interim Chief Executive.

He is a Chartered Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development.