Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to primary Percutaneous Coronary Interventions.

- 1. On what date (month and year) did The Tunbridge Wells Hospital start to provide primary Percutaneous Coronary Interventions (PCI)?
- 2. If applicable, over what period did The Tunbridge Wells Hospital provide a primary Percutaneous Coronary Intervention weekday service (less than 24 hours a day, 7 days a week)? Please provide a date range (month, year to month, year)

Over this period, what hours did the weekday service operate?

- 3. If applicable, over what period did The Tunbridge Wells Hospital provide a primary Percutaneous Coronary Intervention service that operates 24 hours a day 7 days a week? Please provide a date range (month, year to month, year).
- 4. Does The Tunbridge Wells Hospital collaborate with another Trust to provide 24/7 primary Percutaneous Coronary Intervention coverage? If so, which Trusts are involved in this collaboration.

Tunbridge Wells Hospital does not provide a primary PCI service.

The primary PCI service for Kent is provided at William Harvey Hospital
