Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to anti-microbial resistance.

Please could you provide me with the number of cases between 2010-2017?

- In which patients were unable to be treated with anti-biotics due to anti-microbial resistance.*
- In which patients had to undergo an operation to remove the site of resistance due to anti-microbial resistance.*
- In which patients had amputations due to anti-microbial resistance.*

The Trust does not collect this data in a reportable format and we are unable to provide the information requested within the compliance time frame. The Trust has estimated that it will cost more than the appropriate limit to consider your request. The appropriate limit is specified in regulations and represents the estimated cost of one person spending 3½ working days in determining whether the Trust holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information. Under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 the Trust is not obliged to comply with your request and we will not be processing your request further.
