

Chaplaincy at MTW

Information for patients

All faiths and none

The hospital chaplaincy is here for every one – patients, relatives and staff – whether you would describe yourself as religious or not.

Coming into hospital can be a very anxious time. Worries about illness, operations, loved ones and many practical matters can affect us.

A Chaplain is someone who is available to listen to you, to offer you support and should you wish pray with you.

The Chaplains can help you to make contact with a leader of your own faith.

The Chaplains are assisted by teams of volunteers who visit the wards and are willing to listen and talk with you.

Whatever your beliefs or lifestyle your opinions will be respected.

If you, or somebody you know is in hospital and would appreciate a visit from a member of the Chaplaincy team, please complete the referral slip opposite and we will arrange for someone to visit as soon as possible.
