I'm not happy with my care

Sometimes the hospital can get things wrong.

This can make you feel unhappy or worried.

What should I do?

Please tell one of the staff at the hospital who are looking after you.

This might be a nurse, a doctor, or a physiotherapist.

I don't want to tell the nurses or doctors

If you want to talk to someone else, you can contact the Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS).

You can visit the PALS office.

If you are a child, ask a nurse or parent to help you get to the office.

The offices are open:

9.00am – 5.00pm

Monday to Friday

You can phone PALS on:

01622 224960

If no-one answers, please leave a message with your name and phone number.

We will call you back as soon as we can.

You can email PALS at:

mtw-tr.palsoffice@nhs.net

What will PALS do?

PALS are there to help patients, visitors and relatives.

They will ask you what's wrong.

They will listen to you.

They will explain what they are going to do and make sure you are happy with the plan.

What if PALS can't help me?

If PALS can't help you, they might ask our complaints team to look into what has happened.

They might suggest you contact someone else. This might be another hospital, your GP or another support service.

If you need help with this, you can contact:
