Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to specialist doctors.

Details of all the doctors who have been granted specialist registration within Stroke Medicine during the period of April 2017 – September 2017

Under Section 21 of the Act we are not required to provide information in response to a request if the information is already reasonably accessible to you. Details of the Trust Consultants are available from our website and Speciality details for these consultants can be found on the GMC website.
