Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to eating disorders.

You asked:

Does your trust provide a specialist eating disorder outpatient service? If so, I would like to please request the following information.

How much money has your trust spent on eating disorder units from 2012-2017, with a year by year breakdown?

The number of admissions to residential eating disorder clinics within your control from 2012-2017 (with a year-by-year breakdown).

The ages of those admitted in this time period, with a year by year breakdown.

The gender of those admitted in this time period, with a year by year breakdown.

A breakdown of the average amount of time spent in the unit by patients. (e.g. 1-3 months, 3-6 months etc)

The number of patients who require further hospital care after they are discharged from a residential unit, in a year by year breakdown.

The number of patients who have a home address further than 30 miles from the location of the residential unit they are in.

Trust response:

Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust are not commissioned to provide specialist eating disorder services.
