Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to Kent and Medway STP management consultancy companies.

You asked:

I would like to know how much money has been spent by the Kent and Medway since its inception on management consultancy companies split by financial year up to the present date. Previous requests by other requesters was directed specifically at the preparation of the Kent and Medway Sustainability and Transformation Plan this request is aimed at all spending on management consultancy firms.

Please can you provide a few words on why each company was brought in?

Kent and Medway STP response:

Kent and Medway STP does not hold information on the individual spend of the constituent organisations that make up the STP. Please contact these organisations directly.
