Trust response:

1. & 2.

The Trust cannot distinguish between translations and BSL.

Expenditure on Interpreters was:

2017/18 £91221

2018/19 £128974

We do not hold information regarding the number of requests made.

3.

- A. The Trust is applying Section 43(2) FOIA which provides an exemption from disclosure of information which would or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial interests of any person (including the public authority holding it). This is a qualified exemption, and is therefore subject to the public interest test.

The Trust believes that the information requested contains details which would be likely to damage the companies ability to win new business opportunities for their services and to perform them within a commercially competitive market because other contracting authorities and competitors would be aware of the strengths and weaknesses of its delivery model and methodology.

The Trust has concluded that the public interest in maintaining the exemption, and therefore protecting the commercial interests of the suppliers and preserving its ability to compete fairly in a commercial market, outweighs the public interest in disclosure in this case.

- B. Please see the response to part A.

- C. This varies from month to month depending on whether it is face to face or telephone interpreting – last month it was:

Nepalese, Polish, Turkish, Romanian, Portuguese, Bulgarian, Bengali, BSL, Fari, Hindi
