Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to the cost of the PFI hospital bed per day.

You asked:

2. How much is the Trust paying for the PFI hospital per bed per day?

Trust response:

2. The daily cost would be £130.

This figure represents the PFI contract cost divided by the available number of beds, and no costs are allocated to other services such as outpatients
