Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to botulinum toxin injections.

You asked: All questions are shown as received by the Trust.

Q1) How many patients are currently receiving botulinum toxin injections for cervical dystonia?

Q2) How many medical professionals currently administer the botulinum toxin injections?

Q3) What is the current average frequency between injections of botulinum toxin?

Q4) Are there any current delays to patients regular botulinum toxin injections? If so, by how many weeks

Trust response:

Q1. Currently 100 patients

Q2. One

Q3. Interval varies, some patients have injections every 3 months others get them every 4 months.

Q4. Not at present for the current patients.
