Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to Sick days.

*You asked: All questions are shown as received by the Trust.
Can I please have data on sick days taken by employees within your organisation for the last 5 years. I'm aware you are unable to provide personal information so please just refer to each person as Person1, Person2 etc.*

Please provide the information below in CSV file format in the following order of preference:

*[Authority name],
Calendar Year,
Anonymised Person data,
Department,
Number of days off sick,
Approx cost of sickness absence,
Reason (if available)*

Please could you provide the information in a CSV file format in this order:

[Authority name], Year, Person XX, Department, Number of Days off sick, Cost, Reason

Trust response:

This information is not held in a reportable format and would require the manual checking and cross referencing of several databases held within the Trust. The Trust has estimated that it will cost more than the appropriate limit to consider this part of your request. The appropriate limit is specified in regulations and represents the estimated cost of one person spending 3½ working days in determining whether the Trust holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information. Under Section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 the Trust is not obliged to comply with your request and we will not be processing your request further.
