Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to Mortuary data.

*You asked: All questions are shown as received by the Trust.
I would like to make another freedom of Information request to ask how many other people were frozen and if their families have been told that they were frozen as is your legal obligation. And if not why not?*

Trust response:

The Trust can confirm that there were 10 patients in the unit at this time.

This incident was reported to the HTA, who were satisfied with the Trust's response. In line with this, the families of the patients involved were not informed as there was no negative impact on the deceased.
